InstaBook

Introducing InstaBook. Turn a digital file (e-mail, CD, floppy) into a bound paperback book. You even get a customized cover & you can (if you want) register the book with an ISBN. This takes on-demand publishing to a whole new level. Anyone know of one in the Bay Area?

Thanks to Scott Bauer from Redwood City Public Library for pointing this one out to me.

Instabook is in NJ, NY, Canada, Italy, Mexico, Australia, etc. Sorry, not yet on the west coast, but soon I figure. www.instabook.net instabook has scary customer service. They have had our upload (book text & cover) and more importantly our MONEY for days now and haven't even answered our emails. Consider other print on demand sites or go to booksandtales.com for comparisons before you go through what I have been through.

I've delt with this company and have received very good service. There is a woman there, Leslie Lambert who is very responsive.
